SAD DEATH ON MAUI

Miss Kirkland Passes
Quietly Away.

TALE OF STOLEN PIGS

Debating Society Holds Interesting Meeting--Cattle Drive at Ka-hikinui Ranch.

(Special Correspondence.)

WAILUKU, Maui, Jan. 12.--Miss Susie Kirkland, the second daughter of Mr. James Kirkland, manager of the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Company's store, died on January 5 at Kahului.Miss Kirkland had been ill for a week but on Saturday her sickness assumed a most serious turn and Dr.
Weddick summoned Dr. McConkey of Paia for consultation. Everything was done to relieve the sufferer but to no avail. Her demise was so unexpected that her parents and two sisters were prostrated with grief.Services were held at the Kirkland residence on the afternoon of the 7th, conducted by Major Wood of the Salvation Army. A special train of the Kahului Railroad Company conveyed the funeral party to Wailuku, where the interment was made in the cemetery in Tao valley.Since the great Kona storm some six weeks or more ago the Kahului road near the Kirkland residence has been covered with standing water for about 100 yards. As teacher in the Spreckelsville school, Miss Kirkland was compelled to ride through this pond twice a day and it is thought that her death was the result.Manuel Coelho of Kula was committed to trial by District Magistrate Charles Copp of Makawao on a charge of larceny in the second degree. The defendant was accused of stealing two pigs, the property of Tam La and James Alana. The prosecution said:"On December 16th, as several Chinese vaqueros were returning from a cattle-drive in Kula, they saw two natives and a Portuguese stealing pigs on the premises of a Chinese who leases a pig-run from Haleakala ranch.
Two pigs were forced into bags and placed across the horse belonging to the Portuguese and one of the Hawaiians lifted a big grunter on to the saddle of his fellow countryman. The alarm was given, but the two natives escaped. Coelho was captured, being handicapped by the weight of his plunder."

MAKAWAO LITERATEURS.

The Makawao Debating Society held a meeting in the parlors of the Paia Foreign Church on last Friday evening, using as the subject of debate, "Resolved, that the manufacturer confers a greater benefit upon mankind than the farmer." S. R. Dowdle and D. T.
Fleming led the affirmative and W. S.
Nicol and F. S. Alexander took the negative. The negative side was awarded the decision by the audience.The next debate will deal with the construction of the Nicaragua canal under the treaty as amended. After the discussion a meeting of the members of the society of the Paia Foreign Church was held to consider the question of procuring a substitute during Dr. Beckwith's convalescence. It was decided to obtain, if possible, a minister from Honolulu.

MAUI BRIEFS.

On January 15th a meeting of the stockholders of the Maui Telephone Company will be held at the Paia postoffice.The cattle-drive to be held at Ka-hikinui ranch beginning with today promises to be a great event in the annals of cattle herding. For two weeks or more all the leading vaqueros of Maui will be there and many a thrilling adventure will be experienced, for of the three or four thousand animals to be driven in many are very wild, having been bred far up on the mountains. L. von Tempsky, manager of the Haleakala ranch, will be present with his band of cowboys to round up any strays from Wailokai ranch, of which he has charge, and Manager Laurie Crook of Upulakua will also attend with his company of riders to look after any stray stock bearing the Upulakua brand. An enjoyable and exciting time is prophesied for the boys.Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Baldwin of Hamakua are being congratulated upon the birth of a baby boy, occurring January 5.On last Monday old Haleakala wore the largest snow-cap of the season, the whole length of the ridge being whitened with snow.The friends of Mrs. D. C. Lindsay of Paia are glad to learn that she is recovering from her illness.There was no service held at the Paia Foreign Church on Sunday, January 6th, owing to the illness of Dr.
Beckwith.Light showers prevailed during the week, the cool weather continuing.

SEVERE STORM OVER ISLANDS

Outer Edge Strikes Honolulu As It Works to the South.A storm proceeding from the north struck Honolulu early yesterday morning and continued throughout the day, causing those who had made plans for trips into the country to remain indoors. Professor Lyons, Territorial Meteorologist, says that the storm is known as a high barometer storm, and in the vicinity of the Aleutian Islands is probably of great strength.Only the western end of it touched this city as it passed to the south, and it is probably more severe on the opposite side of the island. Owing to the fact that there is no telegraphic communication from the northwest it is impossible to predict storms of this nature. It is probable that there will be occasional showers for the next forty-eight hours.HOSTETTER'S

IS QUALITY

then no consideration?
Even if "all coons look alike," certainly they are not all the same quality.Can anything be more true than this concerning jewelry or silver goods? How many pieces made in the same pattern, from the common plated ware to the finest of gold, bear the same outward resemblance?Can you tell them apart?
Yet you do not wonder that there is some difference in the cost of making.Is it not here where the guarantee and the reputation of the dealer is your safeguard?This fall's productions embrace some striking examples in the better class of ornaments.Magnificent brooches and pendants set with the different gems. The "Art Nou-
